DEDICATION

To CASORites all over the world, you gave me the privilege and platform to lead like never before, my Prayer for CASOR OAU is that you shall live and not die; Your men will not be few and your hands will be sufficient for you.

And to my generation next, we are no longer next, we are NOW, and we are taking over. My prayer for us is that we will ALL FULLY FILL that divine hollow in our hearts. The world awaits us.
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

--To my source, my breath, my glorious obsession: the God of the whole earth. I owe you more than acknowledgements, I owe you everything. I can never repay you.

--To my dad, Adeyemi for your leadership instinct that has birthed same in me, and for charting my course through life's meanders.

--To my mum, Ebun for spearheading my growth process and ardently believing in me against all odds. You're indeed a gift.

--To my siblings, Sayo, Sola, Banji and Funke, you were just always there for me, I was so little, but you carried me along still.

--We are no different from the cumulative input of what we have learned, relearned and unlearned. I am grateful to God for the human resources He has placed in my life through books, tapes, videos, and biographies. They are really the mighty men that had me in their quiver. They motivated, inspired and still inspire me. Your wealth of wisdom has left me forever changed and transformed.

--To my mentors and Fathers, Pastor Tolu Moody, Pastor Kolapo Patrick, and Pastor Peter Alabi, for your belief in me, your counsel and show of love. They do not leave me the same. They have carefully shaped me into who I am today. I love you Sirs.

--Pastor Peter, you gave me targets and deadlines. You encouraged me and lent me your relationships. But for you, I would probably still be on chapter three by now, thank God for the push you gave me. I will be eternally grateful.

--To Pastor Olaoluwa Oluwadare, you are simply amazing sir. Thank you for helping with the book design and publishing sir. You made me think outside the box sir. I really honour and celebrate you sir.

You made it easy for me to be me. Your seed sown is blessed. Space and time will fail me to include the acts and exploits of my Samsons, Gideons, Baraks, and Samuels, Hebrews 11:32. You would always be generals.

--Tobi Adewale, you added a huge brick to this building, thanks for the encouragement and initial editing. You made it your business, may men make it their business to serve you.
--Oniosun Mayode, for typing the manuscript from my journal, you slept off typing sometimes, but you still did it. I love you

--I am grateful for the members, friends and colleagues who I've been privileged to lead from the outset till now. You brought out the silk indeed. Never knew I could be who I am until I met you. May you ever remain fruitful.
FOREWORD

Apostle Paul was regarded by the authority of scriptures as a wise master builder, what he built was not an empire or enterprise, what he built by the help of the Holy Spirit was a lasting pattern of ministry for the new creation man and the Church of Christ, this pattern will endure till the coming of our Lord. He achieved this feat by engaging the Spirit inspired timeless prayers, scattered across the new testament books.

The Pauline prayers are prayers that never age, never die, never fade. They are relevant for all dispensations and seasons, for all people and creed, for all situations and circumstances.

They carefully portray the heart of God about the timeless realities of the new creation man. Your life changes radically when God floods your faculties with the intensity of his ever increasing light, and much more fills you with His fullness in an abounding measure. This is the content you stand to collide with in these amazing resource. It applies to everyone.

Damilola has carefully plucked out these strands of eternal realities and demystified them to small bits for your consumption, learning and edification. Do not read this book once, read it as many times as possible and recommend it to others. It ought to be a study guide!

PAULINE PRAYERS has blessed me, and it's more than certain to bless you and millions of others as well.

Enough of praying amiss, Let's join the train of the new creation prayer revolution. Let's get it right and let's get it now.
