

What Is Judgment Preview

What is judgment? You constantly hear people always saying, "Oh, Jesus said you shouldn't judge anyone!" Wrong. Jesus said that if you judged someone you would be judged. If you choose to judge another then you will be judged by others as well. He said, "Judge not, lest ye be judged." He also said that if you are operating from the Spirit of God within that your judgment is just. Following are several posts of mine on judgment:

We are everything! God is within us as He is within everything. We are connected with all of creation! It is all an expression of Him! First, a popular statement quoted by some is, "I, of mine own self am nothing." This is not the correct statement. It is not 'am nothing', it is 'do nothing'. It is "I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me" (John 5:30). This statement is based on an idiom. One that infers that your will (ego) cannot control the motions of the universe, not that you are 'nothing'. Your individual power is limited to what you can do for yourself. It is the power of the Divine order that moves the universe through you, by you and for you. This mistranslation and misunderstanding has caused many a person to walk down a path of delusion into thinking that Christ said that he and all of us are nothing. Nothing could be farther from the truth! Rejoice in the fact that we are a part of God's creation and we have the choice to express His will or our own will. Which will you choose? ~Dean A.
